Why we are united and work together

Luxembourg, le 13/11/ 2019

In one of the last messages from US-L, we are warned not to be intimidated by e-mails from other trade unions, and, in particular, not to let “others impress or manipulate” us but to “take control “of our own future.

But should we believe US-L and the promises of this trade union? Let’s consider the following:

- The objectives proposed by US-L in this election are the same as those for the previous election but were never discussed with other trade unions during the three years of their mandate at the head of the Local Staff Committee? Reading the activity reports of the LSC, nothing has been done to address these issues.
- Is it honest to base one's electoral campaign solely on the argument about a weighting for Luxembourg and then to populate it here and there with some minor issues?
- Why does US-L oppose the revision of the electoral system that would allow a more representative distribution of seats? All other trade unions are in favour of a reform to the system.

When we in List 3 Ensemble Luxembourg ask ourselves these questions, we realise that we’re not dealing with a trade union but with a political organisation that would go to any lengths to maintain its supremacy at the level of the Local Staff Committee!

We, in List 3 Ensemble Luxembourg, don’t believe that staff is too naïve to consider that facts and build its own opinion. We don’t need to try to manipulate you. We believe the truth speaks for itself.

No manipulation, no intimidation, no alternate reality.

Simply the truth – List 3 Ensemble Luxembourg
